Saturday, June 29. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 29.

Vienna, June 18.

ON Sunday last Te Deum was sung here for the Victory of Ramellies; and a triple Discharge was made of our Artillery. The Jesuite Seifs preach'd before the Emperor on this Occasion, and by his Order took Notice, that the Successes of this War were owing under God to the Queen of England and the States General of the united Provinces. The Mourning for the late Emperor Leopold is laid aside. A Tournament is design'd to be perform'd here, when the News arrives of King Charles's being proclaim'd at Madrid.

Basil, June 26. The Marquis of Beretti Landi, Ambassador of King Philip V. to the Roman Catholic Swiss Cantons, presented lately to the Magistrates of Lucerne a Copy of the Alliance between the said Cantons and the Milaneze; and desir'd them to use their Interest that the same might be ratified and exchange'd before the End of this Month. These Magistrates having deliberated upon this, have notify'd to that Minister, that what he desir'd could not be done in so short a Time.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 29.

Letters from Dantzick of the 15th tell us, that on the 10th Dr. Robinton Envoy extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain, made a magnificent Entertainment, at which were present the Magistrates of that City and the Ministers of Denmark, Holland, and of King Augustus of Poland; on Account of the great Victory of Ramellies. And that the Envoy of the States General was preparing to give a like Entertainment on the same Occasion.

Other Advices from Dantzick of the 19th say they had receiv'd Advice, that on the 20th of May a bloody Battle was fought near Lachowicz between the Swedes and Muscovites; in which the former lost 6000 Men, and the latter 9000: But of this we expect Confirmation.

Shields, June 25. Yesterday sail'd from this Port above 100 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of the Strumbolo and Feversham; and to Day about 14 Sail of Ships bound for Russia, and about 30 Colliers, are sailing for Yarmouth Roads under Convoy of the Bonadventure and Queenborough.

Yarmouth, June 26. Yesterday sail'd from hence Her Majesty's Ship the Dunwich, with about 30

Sail of light Colliers under her Convoy for Newcastle; and this Evening is coming into our Roads a Fleet of laden Colliers from the Northward.

Harwich, June 27. This Morning the Prince Pacquet-Boat sail'd from hence with a Mail for Holland. Sir Edward Whitaker with his Squadron is still here.

London, June 29.

Letters from Bristol dated June 26 advise, that a Merchant Ship arriv'd there the Day before from Barbadoes: The Master of which reports, that he sail'd from thence the 26th of May in Company with 37 other Ships, most of them bound for New-England, Virginia, Newwork, and Bermudas; 2 for England, 1 of which call'd the Marquis, a large Ship, parted from him in the Voyage and shap'd her Course for Lisbon, to get Convoy home; the other call'd the Rising Eagle parted from him in the Latitude of 48 and stood for the Channel: Another Ship also, call'd the Royal Confort, came with him to the Latitude of 40. and then went away for Guinee. The said Master further reports, that the Fleet of Merchant Ships which sail'd from England in February, were all safely arriv'd at Barbadoes, and were taking in their Lading in order to sail for England the 20th of June, with a good Convoy. He adds, that 2 Sloops had brought Advice to Barbadoes, that the French had made no Attempt on any of the English Islands besides St. Christophers and Nevis, but went away from the latter directly for Carriagena, there to dispose of their Negros. [This last Piece of News is confirm'd by the Crew of a large French West-India Ship, which was taken by a Dutch Privateer and brought into Plymouth about a Week ago.] A Sloop is also arriv'd at Bristol, in five Weeks from Montserrat; (so that she came from thence more than 3 Weeks after the last Pacquet Boat did;) and reports, that the French had left the Islands, and had made no Attempt on Montserrat, Antegoa, or any other Isle belonging to the English except the two fore-mentioned.

Francis Eyles, Esq; having paid his Fine, and John Ward, Esq; pleaded Privelege of Parliament, this Day is appointed for a new Election of Sheriffs of London and County of Middlesex for the Year ensuing, and we hear that William Benson and Ambrose Crawley, Esquires, being Persons of known Integrity and well affected to her Majesty and the Government both in Church and State, are to be put in Nomination in the Common Hall to serve that Office.
